

BARAADSAR LAKE TREK

A journey to the Wish-Fulfilling Lake

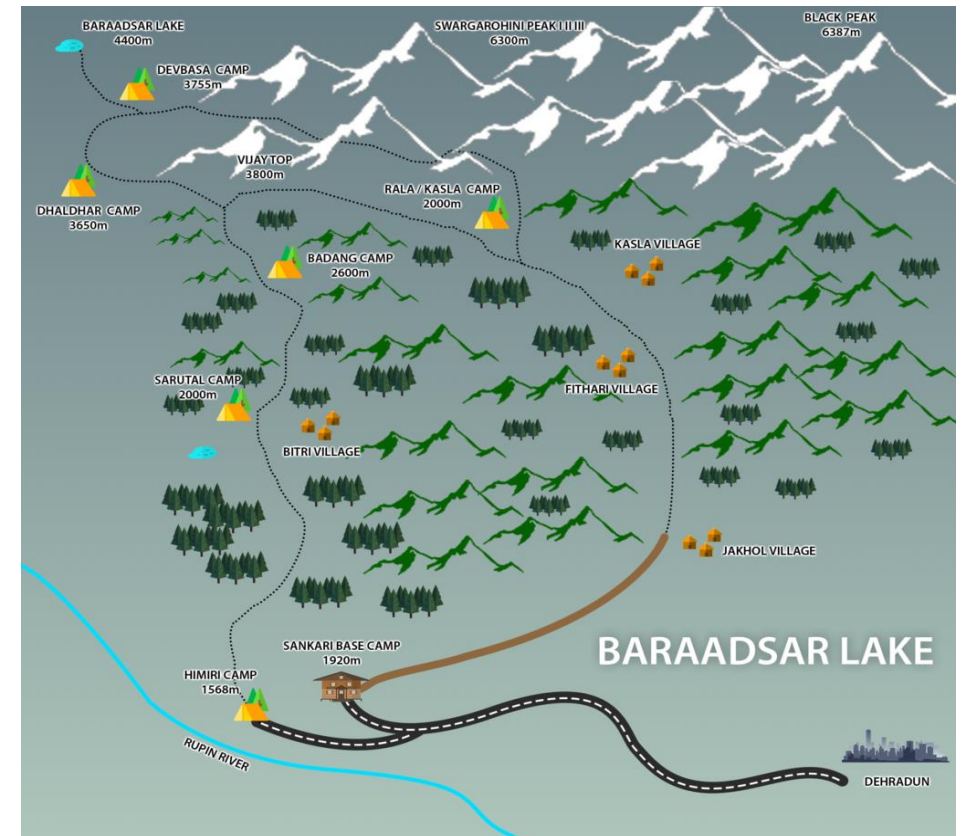

Famously known as Devbhumi, or the Land of the Gods, Uttarakhand is a land of untouched natural beauty and sublime spirituality.

Uttarakhand is a place that not only boasts of a scintillating view of the Himalayas but also exhibits a cultural ethos which speaks of a simplistic and harmonic coexistence with nature.

With oaks, birches, silver firs and rhododendrons adorning the steep mountain slopes, Uttarakhand offers you a glimpse into an untainted, idyllic world, straight out of the pages of some ancient pastoral literature.

Baraadsar Lake Trek, considered sacred by the local community, is one of the lesser known walks in this corner of the Himalaya.

According to local lore, a prayer to the Gods at the Baraadsar lake never goes unanswered!
